

ACPR & Grupo Guayacán Fellowship: Entrepreneur's Boot Camp at Babson College

The Puerto Rico Builder's Association (ACPR), Fundación Comunitaria de Puerto Rico (FCPR) and Grupo Guayacán invite you to apply to their first joint Fellowship Program from the Fondo de Becas Futuros Constructores de Puerto Rico. The selected applicant will receive a partial scholarship to participate in the Babson College Entrepreneur's Boot Camp: A Deep Dive for New Ventures, an executive education program that offers comprehensive tools for new entrepreneurs and seasoned executives to launch new business ventures.

Program Dates : May 22 - 26, 2017

Who Should Apply: This program is designed to support entrepreneurs creating a new start-up business or executives seeking to launch new internal ventures to reinvigorate existing companies. Only employees and executives of ACPR member companies are eligible to apply.

To apply visit: <http://bit.ly/ACPR-GGapplication>

Applications close on: Friday, March 17, 2017

For more information about the fellowship, contact: Jocelyn G. Capeles, Senior Donor Services Officer at FCPR, via phone at 787-721-1037 or email at jgcapeles@fcpr.org.

ASOCIACION DE
CONSTRUCTORES
DE PUERTO RICO

GUAYACÁN
FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

FUNDACIÓN COMUNITARIA
DE PUERTO RICO

The Fellowship will cover tuition, accommodations, materials and meals. The participant will be responsible for travel expenses.